Interim Conservative Leader Candice Bergen advocated against asking protesters occupying Ottawa to go home
RCMP confirmed additional 50 officers in response to sloly ask
It begs the question to do what? Some effort to contain the occupation would be a good start.
Jody described sloly as exhausted and at his wits end . They do not want to tow one vehicle at a time
He should sleep then.
There are not enough tow trucks to do more than one at a time.
You can't wish this away.
I doubt Peter is getting a lot of support in his own organization. They are likely sitting back and waiting for him to flounder. He does not have a strong support network within Provincial police leadership either
